Covenant"). To the extent available to Sublandlord, any rights of Sublandlord pursuant to Article 31 are intended to be enforced for the benefit of Subtenant pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Servicing Agreement, which rights are hereby granted to Subtenant by Sublandlord.

(B) Sublandlord covenants and agrees that if any rights to purchase and/or rights of first refusal to purchase the fee title to the Demised Premises or the Entire Premises or other rights of purchase belonging to Sublandlord pursuant to the Prime Lease, as well as all rights to expand the Demised Premises belonging to Sublandlord pursuant to the Prime Lease, become effective, Subtenant shall have the benefit of such rights to the extent available, and if Subtenant desires Sublandlord to exercise such rights, Sublandlord shall exercise such rights and shall fully cooperate with Subtenant in every way in order to enable Subtenant, at Subtenant's sole cost and expense, to effect the expansion of the Demised Premises or consummation of the desired purchase by Subtenant, as the case may be. The agreement of the parties regarding the election for and exercise of such rights to purchase or first refusal and expansion is contained in the Servicing Agreement.

The Sublease also provides that without Subtenant's prior written consent, Sublandlord shall not sublet or attempt to sublet the Demised Premises, nor grant any consents under the Prime Lease, nor amend, alter, modify, renew, extend, cancel or terminate the Prime Lease, nor assign,
